FRENCH LOAN BOOKS READY. Subscriptions Will Be Received

Here To-day for New lause. Brown Bros. & Co. and A. Iselin & Co. announced yesterday that they had completed an arrangement with the French Government whereby they will receive subscriptions for the new national French ioan of 1916. The fixed rate of exchange in this country will be 5.90 francs to the dollar, which is more favorable than the rate now current. Delivery of the definitive rentes will be made in this city free of expense to subscribers. subscribers.

Subscription books will open to-day Subscription books will open to-day and will close on or before October 2s. Payment is to be made in New York funds on October 20 at the office of Brown Bros. & Co. Temporary receipts will be issued exchangeable only for the definitive rentes.

Features of the new issue include: Exemption from French taxes; net redeemable or convertible before January 1, 1931; direct obligation of French republic; coupons payable quarterly beginning February 16, 1917.

At maturity they will be received by the bankers for payment or collection at the then current rates of exchange.

the the current rates of exchange. The subscription price in Paris is 8834, from which the value of the November coupon is desired, making the sunscription price in Paris 8712. The bankers also annotine that the outstanding 5 per cent, national defence notes and bonds and the 212 per cent rentes issued in 1914 will be received at specified rates in payment for the new issue.

The direct yield at the current rate of exchange is more than 5.70 per cent, and at the normal rate about 5% per cent. The discount in ex-change at which the bonds are of change at which the bonds are of-fered in this country (5.50) is about 13.30 per cent, and if frame exchange should return to par and the bunds be sold at the issue price the investor would receive for 100 frames capital $16.88, and for 5,000 frames capital $16.88, and for 5,000 frames capital $214.30.

Pittsburg Hog Prices Drop.

Pittsburg, Oct. 4.—The first important break for more than a year in the steadily rising market for meat in the Pittsburg district was forecast to-day, when hogs were quoted 70 cents a hundred lower than yesterday, with the highest price, $2.50. Heavy receipts and a falling off in demand were given as the cause. Leading hotel managers announce that 10 cents would be added to all meal checks to cover the cost of bread and butter. and butter.

DIES IN THEATRE

Identity of Dr. Richard C. Flower Unknown for Three Days in Hoboken.

An old man dropped dead while atending a vaudeville show with a party of friends in a Hoboken theatre Sunday night, and so little was thought of the happening that no efforts were made then to learn the name of the old man from his friends. Not until yesterday did it become known that the dead man was Dr. Richard C. Flower, who during a long and crowded criminal career had stolen more than $1,000,000 in various ways, mostly from women, and for many years had caused countless policemen to earn their wages. Flower and his wife had been living quietly in Hayonne since his release on August 1 last from the Blackwell's Island American Delegates Urge Solu- Originator of System Says It's years sentence meted out to him on December 7, 1914, by Justice Davis in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court after Flower pleaded guilty to two charges of grand larceny.
